Baccarat History - Learn About One of The Oldest Card Games

Baccarat's history is said to go all the way back to medieval Italy.

The origins of the card game are debatable, but most believe it was created in the 1400s by a man named Felix Falguiere or Felix Falguiere.

He called the game "baccara", which translates to "zero", as all tens and face cards were valued at zero (the French spelling "baccara") Tj T* BT /F

In today's game there is one dealer, bets are typically placed against the house, and the house also fills in the banker role.

This kind of baccarat is what we now know as "American Baccarat."

In the late 1950s, Tommy Renzoni shipped the game over to the Sands casino in Las Vegas, and the rest, as we say, is history.

Baccarat may have not caught on with the public the same way games like real money roulette and blackjack have, but it still enjoys an air of exclusivity and prestige with many casino goers.

Online poker tables commonly offer Texas hold'em, Omaha hold'em, seven-card stud, razz, HORSE, and other game types in both tournament and cash game structures.
